Sharing personal data with third parties

Total Safety provides personal data only to third parties and only if this is necessary for the execution of our agreement with you or to comply with a legal obligation.

Cookies, or similar techniques, that we use

Total Safety uses only technical and functional cookies and analytical cookies that do not infringe your privacy. A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your computer, tablet or smartphone when you first visit this website. The cookies we use are necessary for the technical operation of the website and your ease of use. They ensure that the website works properly and remember, for example, your preferences. We can also optimize our website with this. You can opt out of cookies by setting your internet browser so that it does not store cookies anymore. In addition, you can also delete all information previously saved via the settings of your browser.

View, modify or delete data

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. You also have the right to withdraw your consent to the data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data by Total Safety and you have the right to data portability. This means that you can submit a request to us to send the personal information we have in your computer file to you or another organization mentioned by you. You can send a request for access, correction, deletion, data transfer of your personal data or request for cancellation of your consent or objection to the processing of your personal data to gdpr@totalsafety.com.

To ensure that the request for access has been made by you, we ask you to send a copy of your ID with the request. You can black-out everything but it has to be a recognisable ID card and your name must be readable. This is to protect your privacy. We respond as quickly as possible, but within four weeks, at your request.

Total Safety would also like to point out that you have the opportunity to file a complaint with the national supervisory authority:
